EXPLORE PINNACLE PEAK

PINNACLE PEAK OFFERS FREE RANGER-LED INTERPRETIVE TOURS

Visitors might see a bobcat, a mule deer, a raven or even a rattlesnake! One thing is guaranteed, you're certain to enjoy a hike on the Pinnacle Peak Trail! As the weather cools down, join us November through April for ranger led interpretive tours at the park. Visitors will learn fascinating facts about the unique plants and animals found only in the Sonoran Desert. Tours last approximately 2 hours, and are offered every Tuesday through Sunday (excluding holidays) at 10 a.m. Participants should be prepared to hike 1 ¼ miles round-trip on steep terrain; carry plenty of water and wear comfortable hiking attire. For further information, please call 480-312-0990 or visit our website at www.scottsdaleaz.gov/parks/pinnacle.

PINNACLE PEAK OFFERS FREE WILDFLOWER WALKS

Abundant fall rain determines the wildflower displays! If wildflowers are plentiful during February and March, Pinnacle Peak Park will be offering guided wildflower walks on Thursday and Friday afternoons from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Park Rangers will discuss various flowering plants along the trail. Participants should be prepared to hike 2.5 miles round trip on rocky, steep terrain. Please bring your camera, water, and wear comfortable hiking attire. Call (480) 312-0990 to find out if a hike is scheduled.

FAMILY PARTICIPATION IN OUR OUTDOOR EXCURSIONS AND DAY TRIPS IS ENCOURAGED. UNACCOMPANIED CHILDREN MUST BE 15 YEARS OLD. FOR INFORMATION CALL (480) 312-7901.

Transportation is provided on all trips by the City of Scottsdale's Recreation Division. Space availability is determined per each individual activity. Fee includes all transportation, trained guide service, permits and entrance fees where applicable. Follow registration instructions on page 4. Most activities are not available for fee assistance.

Prior to each activity participants will receive by mail a detailed information sheet pertaining to the activity specifics for the day hikes, trips, backpacking and camping excursions. Each of the featured hiking, backpacking and camping activities has been scouted by the staff prior to the day of the event. No firearms, radios or animals. The City of Scottsdale encourages participation by everyone and we will be happy to make accommodations to meet your needs. Please contact (480) 312-0218 to make accommodation requests. Service dogs are allowed on activities.
